BELMONT CHRON

B. R. COWEN, EDITOR & PROPRIETOR.]

"HE WHO LOVES NOT HIS COUNTRY CAN LOVE NOTHING."

TERMS $1.50 A YEAR, IN ADVANCE

NEW SERIES, VOL. VII, NO. 52.1

ST. CLAIRSVILLE, OHIO, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 4, 1855.

WHOLE NO. 967

THE CHRONICLE.

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY MORNING.

the New Masonic Hall, a few doors East of the Court House, and a few doors West of the Norton House.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

ff paid within three months, $1.50.
If paid after that time, 2,00
Papers discontinued only at the option of the editor, while arrearages are due. TERMS OF ADVERTISING.

Each square, (11 lines or less.) three week, Every additional insertion, Yearly advertisements one column, Half column, Quarter column.

Professional cards $3 per annum.

15.01

1. PAII letters addressed to the editor must be paid to paire attention. naire attention [1]

No paper discontinued until all arrearages are paid unless at the option of the editor. [1]

POETRY.

LITTLE NELL. BY CHARLES DICKENS.

And now the bell-the bell She had so often heard by night and day, And istened to with solemn pleasure, E'en as a living voice-Rung its remorseless toll for her, So young, so beautiful, so good!

Decrepit age and vigorous life, And blooming youth and helpless infancy, Poured forth-on crutches-in the pride strength. And health—in the fell blush Of promise, the mere dawn of life---To gather round her tomb. Old men were there Whose eyes were dim And senses failing;

Grandames, who might have died ten years ago. The palsied;

The living dead, in many shapes and forms. To see the closing of that early grave: What was the death it would shut in, To that which still could crawl and creep above

Along the crowded path they bore her now, Pure as the new tallen snow That covered it, whose stay on earth Had been as decting: Under that poren where she't ad sat when Heaven, In mercy, brought her to that observall spot She passed again, and the old charen Received her in its shade. Oh! it is hard to take to neart

The less on that such death; wall touch, But let no man reject it; For it is one that all must learn, And is a mighty universal truta

When death strikes down the innocent and

For every fragile form, from which he lets The parting spirit free, A hundred virtues rise In shapes of mercy, charity, and love,

To walk the world and pless it. Of every tear

Some good is born, some gentler nature cornes.

MISCELLAREOUS. A Smart Elitor.

citizens to inform the showman of the ex- the "mallet," and when he got home to me whom it were admissible even now to speak. mittee on a Platform reported, through Col. istence in their midst of this rare specimen. he had a "fancy head," if there ever was one Baby shows and Fejee mermaids would be cast entirely in the shade.

Trimble as his candidate for Governor, tho't then than ever before. he must do something to distinguish himself had a question to put to Mr. Chase," risk a reply. [Cries of "go on, go on!"]

And the man seeking knowledge under difficulties "went on" as follows-"Mr. Chase, are you in favor of the restoration of the Missouri Compromise!" Mr. Chase took breath and said he would knees to thank God I hadn't broken my first ask his friend "what he meant by the neck. Missouri Compromise!"

the Missouri Compromise?" [A painful and fluttering pause. Then to a different tune -N. Y. Tribune. laughter, and cries of "He can't do it!"-

"He don't know himself !"] "The Missouri Compromise," said the individual, "is-nh,-it is-"

[Laughter, and cries of Go on! go on!"] mise that we give Missouri in eighteen hun- with an air of di-dain at a poor neighbor's bane of Genius, strong drink. dred and -and in eighteen hundred and son or daughter, when, we know too, that his Booth and several friends had been invited twenty-for which our fathers fought - father acquired the property which his fool of to dine with an old gentleman in Baltimore, and fought and bled when we got Missouri." a son is making himself ridiculous upon, by of distinguished kindness, urbanity, and pic-hook, and swore some.] Mr. Chase--[laughing]-- I perceive my codfish." promise is! If he means to ask if I am in est ambition appears to be a desire to eclipse at his scruples am prejudice. After the enthe restoration of that. I concede to the as a vargar accomplishment, we see a strong and one wanted about the Lord's Prayer ritory or s'aveholders all their existing right, and pre- inclination to whisper in her ear, "Hurrah appreciate, to read a oud the Lord's Prayer forever. vileges, and would not interfere with one of for codfish."

south of 36 9 30'," the meat block, the crowd upon it separated, novel, while "ma" is doing the Ritchen drad- As yet he had not spoken. The silence and the man who had been hungering and the man who had been hungering and the man who had been hungering and gery, we say to ourself, 'Hurrah for cod cou'd be felt. It became absolutely painting about the "compromise," went down fish."

—passed out—and "compromise," went down fish."

When we hear a lady greatest that the -passed out-and "compromised" his feelings by quenching his "thirst" with a gin erck-tai!.-Sciolo Gazette.

Happy as a Clam. A cheerful temper is a natural gift, the desirability of which cannot be questioned, but seldom do we meet with a spirit so thoroughly Office on North side of Main Street in saturated with good nature that no disappointment, no poverty, deprivation or combination of adverse circumstances can break it down or overcome its geniulity. But yesterday morning a man made his appearance before Justice Brennan who seemed to have a perfect f untain of undiluted contentment somewhere in his combination which no depressing influences of care or accident had bee cable to exhaust or adulterate-a type, a modern edition of Mark Tapley-a human barrel of jolliness without hoops on. He was arrested for being intoxicated. He gave his name as Gettyphat Take, and said he was a printer, and hailed from the Gem of Science office. He is a short man of beer-cask figure, and a face as rubicund as if he slept in a room with red curtains. His answers to the questions of the authorities showed his contentment under all shades of fortune. The Justice being also in genial humor was inclined to banter the disciple of Ben. Franklin, and accordingly addressed h m as follows: Judge Well, Mr. Take, it enems you have thrown aside the "composing-stick," and gone to getting drunk for a living I'm afraid you're a "bad case" and stand in need of "cor-well-as-you-do-sir, seemed to give Mr. Take that assurance which printers seldom lack, but of which the solemnities of a police court might temporarily have deprived him, and he Prisoner-Well, at any rate, I'm glad And still been old, the deaf, the blind, the lame, at that. But bless you, sir, going to jail's a multitud of sins."-N. Y. Dutchman. nothing; the last time I was there I tamed a rat and learned him to chew tobacco, besides inventing three new steps for a fancy hornpipe-it's a good deal better than setting have a chance to get the bile off my stomach. Judge-You seem to take it easy; how do you propose to employ your mind this trip! Prisoner-Well, Corporal, I'm undecided wouldn't remind her unpleasantly of intestinal discords after her feline body had been nine times slain.

Judge-Mr. Take, you seem particulary sticking trade, but the first day he quarreled tion. Portsmouth. Ohio, is certainly a great with the regular "devil," sipped over the And not now now to speak of Semirannis at place—remarkable for a great many productions, and successful the state shall be born equally by the stone, and so the state shall be born equally by the stone, and so the state shall be born equally by the stone, and so the state shall be born equally by the stone, and so the state shall be born equally by the stone, and so the state shall be born equally by the stone, and so the state shall be born equally by the stone, and so the state shall be born equally by the stone, and so the state shall be born equally by the stone, and so the state shall be born equally by the stone, and so the state shall be born equally by the stone, and so the state shall be born equally by the shall be bor boats and fast horses, independent tipplers, ped the "shooting stick" into the "all gator time the bright st period in history, or her, Free State Convention, which assembled at poor whiskey, and last, but not least, smart press," and in the evening he and another the young and lovely, the patron of learning Big Springs on the 5th instant. The first carried by acclamation. In answer to the editors. They have one specimen of the lat- hopeful boy was caught rehearsing a broad and morals, who now adorns the throne of day of the Convention was taken up with the , ter down there that Burnom could make a sword combat with a couple of "column the seagir Isles, not now to speak of these, usual preliminary business on such occasion. ed on the stand. The Heraid of Freedom reter down there that burnom could make a such a could be sugger tales, not now to speak of these, usual preliminary business on such occasion. Some ports the ex-Governor's speech as follows: fortune on, and we think it the duty of the rules;" the "foreman" "battered" him with there are others of more sacred character, of On the second day the Chairman of the Com-

Clerk-Where is he now!

Judge--You seem to be always jolly. money and went hungry forty hours.

life, and that was when I fell down stairs, neither impaired her kickness, shaken her fractured my collar bone, and skinned my constance, nor changed her characters.

Resolved, That we will oppose and resist all come here with clean hands, the spontaneous purposes. But they are all leviel under laws fractured my collar bone, and skinned my constance, nor changed her characters. fractured my collar bone, and skinned my constancy, nor changed her character.

"How, sir!"

Mr Chase—"Tell us what you mean by ing to whistle and sing at the same time, and anguish, and from the cold lorehead the dew morally and pose, never-tiring industry, dogged persever- the State, but that the present rate of taxation what can be done, and lose no time in pushing also dance an independent jig with each leg of death.

"Codfish Aristocracy."

The Missouri Compromise is the compro- ladies, and turning up his elegant proboscis. his great black eye had been dimmed by that [Here some one tore his pants on a meat collecting greass and ashes, we are tempfed ty. The host though disapproving of theato shout in his assinine ears, "Hurrab for trees and theatre-going, had heard so much o avor of restoring what is left of the Missouri her neighbor in diess, and who makes it her tertainment was over, lamps lighted, and the Compromise, I reply that there is nothing constant boa t that she "never washed a dish company re-scated in the drawing-room, some left but the Prohibition, and I am in favor of or hemmed a shirt," because she regards it one requested Booth, as a particular favor, the restoration of that. I concede to the as a vulgar accomplishment, we feel a strong and one which all present would doubtless his father is a wood-sawyer, or when we see He became deathly pase, and his eyes, turned

" Hurrah for codfish."

In short, when we see people putting on upon it the seal of Divinity." These technicalities, which were uttered in a sort of you-see-I-know-your-traile-as-

We are thank'ul that aristocracy in this country has always been at a discount, and we hope it always will be, and can only pity the silly, seft, contemptible man or woman we've no "ga leye" in this country, or I sup- class, is the supreme height of human fe icipose you'd put me there, and "well leaded" ty, although money may, like "charity, cover a plous mother. It was, peace to her suint- ed, and the "skinner" going up to a gentlenot. I've got sick of work just now, and I'll ed spirit, it was her monitory voice that first man, remarked to him now lame that man tion, the people are driven to the necessity timent of the South as indersing the violent on consider the correct public sandard approach man, remarked to him now lame that man tion, the people are driven to the necessity timent of the South as indersing the violent of the south as indersing the violent of the present rule taught my young heart to feel that there was in his left leg, who was just going into of meeting in their sovereign capacity to pro-

Female Influences: A Gem.

BY DR. NOTT.

"Bohemian Girl," practice standing on my no one real zes how decisively it bears upon the man was lame in his left leg, which the Territory on the second Tuesday of October alsof our country fail us, while our wrongs that triumphal procession, which went forth lame in his left leg, he was perfectly certain be made, which shall be determined by this happy under the circumstances; have you got to celebrate with timbrels, on the banks of he went in lame in his right leg, but at the Convention, for the purpose of electing a a wile!

Prisoner—Not now Lieutenant. I had proposed the song of Debora and Barek, the operation of the song of Debora and Barek, the operation of the song of Debora and Barek, the operation of the song of Debora and Barek, the operation of the song of Debora and Barek, the operation of the song of Debora and Barek, the operation of the song of Debora and Barek, the operation of the song of Debora and Barek, the operation of the purpose of electing a convention, for the purpose of electing a convention of the convent bler; I was so glad about it, that I sent her son of Abnoum, and judged in righteou-ness dresses and a quit claim deed of her person, for years, the tribes of Israel. It was a wo- bocker which I signed in capital letters; she left me nan that defeated the wicked counsels of one boy -- but he was a "four cony," not a bit Homan, delivered righteons Mordecai, and like me; I bound him 'orentice to the type- saved a whole people from their utter desola-

The sceptre of empire is not the sceptre Lane, a series of Resolutions of which the that best besits the hands of a woman, nor is following are the most important. robe of mercy.

and prove his devotied to the great cause he had just esponsed. He accordingly jumped father turned me out of doors at eleven years agonies of Gethsemane; it was not woman them as a test upon others. And that when vate arrangements, and that he had continu- people of this State. We hardly know how nau just espoused. The according plumped old; laughed when I broke my arm, and made up on a meat block and announced that the old; laughed when I broke my arm, and made who denied her Lord at the palace of Cai- we shall have achieved our political freedom. ally refuse I it when urged, until he had been the thoughts entertained by the distinguished funny faces at the doctor while he was set- phas; it was not a woman who deserted his vindicated out rights of self-government; and told by men from all parts of the Territory gentleman could have been expressed in lan-Mr. Chase took a deliberate squint toward ting it; the happiest day I ever spent was not a woman who deserted his vinuteated out rights of set government, and too by men from all parts of the Printer generated that was not a woman who deserted his vinuteated out rights of the Union, that his name was essential to success. He guage more concise and pointed than was the individual aforesaid, and said he would one time when I hadn't but one shirt and a man that dared to testify her respect for his when those issues may become vital as they would not accept it upon condition that he used by him on this occasion referred to. pair of pants to put on, had spent all my corpse, that procured spices for embalming it, are now dormant, it will be time amough to be not expected to canvass the Territory in says: and that was found last at night, and first in divide our organization by those tests, the imperson. To do so would not be consonant. These taxes are indeed not all for State I never was really unhappy but once in my the morning, at his sepulchre. Time has portance of which we fully recognize in their with his feelings, as well as that he desired expenses, nor are they levied as state taxes -

The Judge relented and let Mr. Take go, well it has been sustained, to stay the faint- our citizens.

The Lord's Prayer;

A friend tells us an anecdote of Booth. When we see a young man dressed in the the great tragedian, which we do not recol-

Booth's remarkable powers, that curiosity to them; but I oppose the extension of Sisvery

When we see a young man too proud to chair. It was wonderful to watch the play over any of the new Territories north or carry a bundle in the street, when we know of emotions that convulsed his counterance. Booth rose slowly and reverently from his help exclaiming to ourself, "Hurrah for code thos and fervid solemnity that thrilled all report from which we take the following re- but steadily pressing on, as did the wise ment of a tenant. Now the party in power have hearts He inished. The silence contine ued. Not a voice was heard or a muscle Resolved, That this miscalled Legislature, back only for tresh encouragement. He it who were in office last year—the very men sh." . hearts He inished. The silence contin-When we see a lady arrayed in the ued. Not a voice was heard or a muscle prison, we feel a strong desire to thunder in hand. "Sir," said he, in broken accents, altering the precingtion laws and the natura- that violence shoul be deprecated so for g as taxes, they are to be supposed to understand wyou have afforded me a pleasure for lization have, and in legislating at an unau- a single hope of peaceable redress remained; equally well the best mode of taking them When we hear a man boasting of his an- which my whole future life will feel thorized place—by their refusal to allow the but if at least all these should fail—if in the off. But, gentlemen, that the taxes may be cestry, and taking unwonted pains to display grateful. I am an old man, and every day, people to select any of our officers-by im- proper tribunal there is no hope for our dear- lightened, it is not alone necessary that these his pretended family coat of arms, which he from boyhood to the present time, I thought posing upon us their own appointees, down to est rights, outraged and profuned -- if we are men should know how, but that they should has stolen from some old book of heraldry, I had repeated the Lord's Prayer, but I never the most insignificant offices, many of whom still to suffer that corrupt men may reap also have the disposition to remove them we laugh as we say to ourself, "Hurrali for heard it before, never." "You are right," re- were unquestionable residents of Missouri at harvests watered by our tears, then there is and of their disposition, I think we are justiculated."

Collish." Odd has pro- fied in looking upon their past history as a When we see an elegant carriage dashing should be read, has cost me the severest study those proscribed by Congress, and therefore vided in the eternal frame of things redress sufficient index. through the street with heraldic devices embiazoned on its trappings, with a coachman becoming yet satisfied with my rendering and footman decked out in a sort of live y—that wonderful production. Hardly one perthrough the street with heraldic devices embiazoned on its trappings, with a coachman becoming yet satisfied with my rendering these imposing restrictions upon us, requiring the steady eye and the strong arm, and we the steady eye and the strong arm, and we the steady eye and the strong arm, and we the steady eye and the strong arm, and we the payment of one dollar as a tax, seiling must conquer, or mingle the bodies of the person to show his or her estimation of one and soon after, at an early hour, the com- contempt and disgrace upon our Republican cause.

leg, but come out in a few minutes and be Delegate reported in effect, that because the Kanzas." very lame in his left leg he would make it all Legislative body, sitting at Shawnee Mission. He spoke long and eloquently upon the im-

POLITICAL

Kansas Free State Convention.

Prisoner-He ran away with a circus, and the field of carnage her field of glory. Home, Resolved, l'hat setting aside all minor issues ing friendship; that such applause & approve our columns, were it not for the pressure of the last I saw of him he was in the middle of sweet home, is her theatre of action, pedestal of partisan politics, it is incumbent upon rate all would repay all the injustice that might be news and other matter, which limits our At the recent recommendation meeting in that the recent recommendation of the Daily Herald, who assume that the power of the Daily Herald, who had recommendated to recover head of the Daily Herald, who had recover head as a sandard to find that Mr. Chase, here editor of the Daily Herald, who had recover head as a sandard to recover head as a sandard to find that Mr. Chase, here the district of the Daily Herald, who had recover head as a sandard to find that Mr. Chase, here the district of the district of the Daily Herald, who had recover head as a sandard to find that Mr. Chase, here the district of the Daily Herald, who had recover head as a sandard to find that Mr. Chase, here the district of the Daily Herald, who had recover head as a sandard to find that Mr. Chase, here the district of the Daily Herald, who had recover head as a sandard to find that Mr. Chase, here the district of the Daily Herald, who had recover head as a sandard to find the district of the Daily Herald, who had recover here the district of the Daily Herald, who had recover here the district of the Daily Herald, who had recover here the district of the Daily Herald to find the district of the district of the Daily Herald to find the district of the district o place, the editor of the Daily Heraid, who had just that morning run up the name of knot round his neck; I've been jollier since if seen abroad she is seen to best advantage our dearest rights, and into which Democrats would do him the justice to say that this in the speech made by him in Dayton, has Chronicle. when on errands of love, and wearing her and Whigs, Natives and naturalized citizens, nomination had been given entirely without given a very full expression to his views in remay freely enter without any sacrifice of their solicitation by him or by his friends; that to gard to the subject of State taxation, a sub-Prisoner-So I am; I laughed when my It was not woman who slept during the respective political creeds, but without forcing accept it would seriously interfere with pri- ject which is of such universal interest to the

I have written to H. J. Mason, Conneautleg so badly I couldn't get down on my Now, as formerly, she is most ready to ennon-resident voters at our poils, whether from choice of the sovereign squatters of Kansas." enacted by the party who control the State ville, Crawford Co., Pa., in relation to my ter and most reloctant to leave the abode of Missouri or elsewhere, as a gross violation of In giving him this nomination in this manner Administration. And we think that the law misery. Now as formerly, is her office, and our rights, and a virtual distranchisement of they had strengthed his arms to do their should be altered. We believe that not only mixe by which we are incapaciated for wield-should be a Free State; that free labor will ance, and all the abilities with which God should also be changed. The principle upon on the Herald. best promote the happiness, the rapid popula- had endowed him. to the righting of their which taxes are at present collected, is a subtion, the prosperity and the wealth of our peo- wrongs, and the final triumph of their cause, ject of just complaint. ple; that slave labor is a curse to the master He believed from the circumstances which By legislative enactment, property horders and the community, if not to the slave; that had for the last eight same time placed in were entitled to deduct from the effects in have no doubt I will receive one direct and our country is unsuited to it, and that we will possession many facts, and bound him heart their possession, the amount of the claims stitution of a Free State.

Resolved. That in so doing we will consent to any lair and reasonable provision in regard ing upon us; that in after times this would but also for what they have not. Subsequentto the slaves in the Territory, which shall be to posterity a turning point, a marked by to the decision of the Supreme Court, the protect the masters against injustice and total period, as are to us the opening of the Revo- State Auditor issued his circular, promulga-

Resolved, That it is the opinion of this Conwe will oppose their admission into the Ter- that if any one supposed that institutious ritory or future State of Kanzas and of Kanzas, is without a shadow of truth to have lived too long amid the blessings of self to the kind of influence in question, so ner" immediately proposed a het of $10 that head, or undertake to acquire the elegant accomplishment of balancing straws on my nose; if I could get a cat I'd teach her to play the fiddle, if I thought the strings apostacy of Adam, and by woman that impossible to making the returns, as play the fiddle, tronged by the fiddle of the fi bued the mind and formed the character of of the hotel, and of course the gentleman lost, well as all matter relating to the formula of when such latal danger as that menaced heard of like it was the story of the two Yan-Moses, Israel's deliver. It was a woman that the ber, and though he could scarcely believe the election, excepting the appointment of comes, then is the time to led the choir, and gave back the response of his own eyes, for although the man came out officers and the person to whom returns shall that the alleged cause of the removal of rest with cries, "Yes we will strike;" "White months by swapping. So similar is the mode Governor Reeder and other Territorial of- men never can be slaves"-"Reeder!" "Nine of raising money adopted by the State of ficers' had no sufficient foundation in truth cheers for Rooder and Right." During his Onio, to the plan by which our Yankees enor plausibility, and giving the reasons there-were to be imposed by force upon a free and enlightened people, they never knew, or had lorgotten, the history of our fathers. American chizens bear in their breasts too much costliest fabrics, treat with contempt a school moved in his rapt audience, until from a re- by their reckless disregard of the organic Ter- counseled that peaceful resistance be made under whose anspices the taxes have swollen mate whose clothing is not of so rich a tex- mote corner of the room a subdued sob was ritorial act, and other Congressional legisla- to the tyrannical and unjust laws of the to their present enormous amount. Upon ture, especially when we remember that some heard, and the old gentleman (their host) tion, in expelling members whose title to spurious Legislature; that appeals to the what ground they will negative upon you the of the aforesaid lady's relatives are inmates stepped forward with streaming eyes and seat was beyond their power to annul, in ad-of the poor house, and others of the State tottering frame and seized Booth by the mitting members who were not elected, in made for relief from this oppressive load; be, that having known so well how to put on and especially when we know that its aristo- son in ten thousand comprehends how much the right of suffrage at our tailor boxes to any oppressors with those of the oppressed upon with nothing, it is wrong to crush him becratic proprietor made his money by vending beauty, tenderness and grandeur can be connon-resident who chooses to buy and pay for the soil which the Declaration of Independ"purely vegetable pills," which were nothing densed in a space so small, and in words so it, and the taking an oath to support the ence no longer proceeds. But he was not at field and fair start. When he has means more or less than dried peas, we exclaim, simple. That prayer of itself sufficiently United States Law invidiously pointed out, by all apprehensive that such a crisis would evithustrates the truth of the Bible, and stamp- stifling the freedom of speech and of the press, or arrive. He believed that justice might be and apply the same rule to all persons thus usurping a power forbidden by Congress, found far short of so dreadful an extremity; whether natural or ortificial-to bunks and haughty airs; because it has pleased Provi

redress of their grievances.

So great was the effect produced (says our have trampled under foot the Kanzas bill, and even should an appeal to arms come, it insurance and railroad companies. dence to endow them with a liberal share of informant, who was present) that conserva- have defied the power of Congress, libeled the was his opinion that if we are well prepared. To iliustrate the rule adopted by the State this world's goods, or when we see the super- tion was sustained but a short time longer in Declaration of Independence, violated the that moment the victory is won. Our in- Administration, take the case of a man who cillious snear of contempt upon the face of a m nosyllables and almost entirely ceased; Constitutional Bill of Rights, and brought vaders will never strike a blow in so unjust a borrows one hundred and fifty dollars, and,

A Capital Joke.

We are told, a few days since the fellow
Kanzas; and that every freeman among us is requirements of an election be strictly ob Replace to the tyrangical enactment of this ing the campaign, and advised that the proclamation from the people calling the elecicet d from the last debtor for the benefit of the original creditor.

But the defenders of this rule of taxation, ing piece of "skinning" as it was called, and at full liberty, consistantly with all his obliga- served. Our position is one of asking only urge it as a compensation for its injustice, who may be feelish enough to imagine for a moment that to be a member of an exclusive same time the straits of a certain class of them, if he chooses so to do.

The strain of the strai moment that to be a member of an exclusive same time the straits of a certain class of them, if he chooses so to do.

Ethan Allen was asked at Ticondoroga, by true. Put upon the description on the whose authority he demanded the fort, he respectively and you will and outledly swell it to a configuration on the whose authority he demanded the fort, he respectively and size. The supplies of them, if he chooses so to do.

And the remaining resolutions on the whose authority he demanded the fort, he respectively and size. A well known "case" who was hard up for Legislative report, breathe the spirit of remoney, meeting a brother chip in the street, sistance to the acts of the spurious Legisla- and the Continental Congress." I expect of another illustration, how this plan works in told him if he would walk across the street, ture, even to a bloody issues, when it is you that you so prepare me, that to a similar increasing the list. go in to the front door of the hotel opposite, found that all peaceable remedies shall question I may boldly answer, "The Great Suppose I borrow $1,000, and then loan and in walking in be very lame in his right fail. The committee on a Congressional Jehovah and the sovereign Squatters of the same amount to a person who lends it a-figure work," and getting only a "price and a love my early education—nay taken in the following should endanger to his turn gives his obligations for a half "for it. Lord bless you, 'Squire, I'd all that I have been or am, to the tutelage of the great deal and the Union which we all love and cleave to. taught my young heart to feel that there was summer to feel that there was danger in the intoxicating cup, and that safety lay in abscinence

And as no one is more indebted than my-"Strike for our alture and our fires.

The Convention then proceeded to the enthusiasm was ungovernable; the crowd taxation. But it is the bus ness of the Legisnomination of a Territorial Delegate to Con- gathered around him with the warmest greet- lature to devise a system, by which the bur-

Mr. Chase on Taxation. The Dayton Gazette, of Wednesday, contains a very full report of the speech made by He proceeded to say how much he thanked Mr. Chase in that city, on Monday evening. them for their encouraging and strengthen. We would glady transfer the whole of it to

to go into the halls of Congress and say, of A part or them are for township and county work; and in return he would now pledge to should the aggregate of taxes be reduced to a Resolved, That our true interests, socially, them a steady, unflinching pertinacity of pur- sum absolutely necessary for the expenses of flourishing a delicate walking stick, ogling the palmy days of his fame before the sparkle of ladies, and turning up his elegant stock, on the land soul to the oppressed voters of Kausas, held against them by others. But this enactconstitutional, and the result is that the peo-He said that day by day a crisis was com- ple are taxed, not only for what they have, out two revolvers and a bowie knife. Seven ution, the adoption of the Declaration of In- ting the rule and directing the County Andidependence, and the era of the alien and tors to act accordingly. In some counties the mulatoes, into the Territory or future atate of Kanzas, will be productive of evil among tie which binds the American people togethsedition laws; that we should take each step recommendations of this circular have been breeches pocket and told them, "Threaten the people of Kanzas, and dangerous to the er. Alluded to the unprecedented tyranny different rules of taxation prevail, and the coninstitutions of our sister State; and that under which we are and have been; and said sequence of the whole is that our taxes are opressive, not only by their amount, but also by heir gross inequality.

Within four years, the taxes of the state Chase and run up that of Trimble. We have pressive, not only by their amount, but also by their gross inequality.

who followed the star to the manger, looking made a ticket with names of all the men upon without using it himself, lends it to his neighgain, and so on through the 400,000 voters in for the privilege of borrowing and lending kees, (and by the way, if you will keep it a profound secret, I will inform you that I am by birth a Yankee born, I am almost ashamed to say, in the same State with Mr. Pierce: by shouts and shaking of hands, but now the serves the name of the jack-knife system of the Supreme Cour s in good law, and the Cons itut on re lly stands in the way of such a re sult, then I am in favor of whatever charge in the Constitution may be necessary to effeet it.

Oppression. The following is an extract from a letter direct from G, W. BROWN, editor of the Kanzus Herald of Freedom, published at Lawrence,

More blood is wanted; crime increases, infamy deepens:

How long before I shall be an exile I know not. Daily the clouds look more &more portentous. I can hear the thunders. They appear near at hand. The lightnings! oh, their flash is seen along the sky! When the blow comes, if I fall in the lray I pray you fine an arm to fill my place. As long as there is a dollar of means belonging to my estate, I gray it may be used in presecuting this war.

I have written to H. J. Mason, Conneautbusiness. Should anything be all me and ing the pen, or keeping the Herald affoat cortespond immediately with Mr. Mason; see I have vintually received a challerge today. It was so intended, but I profess not to understand it. After my next paper is out I open. My answer will drive the demons to desperation, as it will appear through the men act upon me the other night, and attempted to drive me from my position. If profane words and fists swinging in the air could have accomplished anything I should have been annihilated. I stood with hands in my have swelled from four millions of dollars to that paper of the 22d inst., before us, and nine millions; so that each man, woman and Chase is still flying at its must head. The child, were taxes laid equally up in all the editor refers to and contradicts the rumor of population, would be obliged to pay four dol- his change. He will continue to support Mr. lars and fifty cents every year towards the ex- Chase, He says Trimble will not get votes penses of the Government. Every man, who in Lucas county enough to make it respectsful, until at last the spell was broken as if to be a slave.

Yours God and Freedom. G. W. BROWN

When we hear a lady protest that she "cannot ride in an omnibus because it was intended for common folk," we can not Father who art in Henven," &c., with a pa-legislative matters of Kanzas, also made a legislative matters